

Journée d'étude

Past interactions in Southern Africa

3 avril 2023, 9h-12h

Programme

9 : 15 – Iris Guillemard¹²

ATER ; ¹Université Toulouse – Jean Jaurès (TRACES, Pôle Afrique, SMP3C ; ²Rock Art Research Institute, University of the Witwatersrand

Title : 'Looking at interactions through lithic studies during the 1st and 2nd millenniums AD in South Africa'

10 : 00 – Abigail J. Moffett¹

Postdoctoral researcher – ¹Sainsbury Research Unit for the Arts of Africa, Oceania and the Americas, University of East Anglia

Title: 'Entangled networks of trade and interaction in South Africa, 200 – 1600 CE'

10 : 40 – Hilde Gunnink¹²,

Postdoctoral researcher – ¹UGent Centre for Bantu studies, Ghent University; ²Leiden University Centre for Linguistics, Leiden University

Title: '2000 years of Bantu-Khoisan contact in Southern Africa: linguistic traces of interactions between hunter-gatherers and food-producers '

11 : 20 – Rachel King ¹

Associate Professor of Cultural Heritage – ¹Institute of Archaeology, University College London

Discussant